Place of Employment

Hyundai
Ms. Cassandra Williams, Ms. Gloria Robinson
700 Hyundai Boulevard
Montgomery, Alabama 36105
(334)387-8909

I began working for Hyundai (Dynamic Security) on July 31, 2017. On the first day of working I was sent home because of my hairstyle (dreadlocks), and also because I informed my employer that I was pregnant.. I had given Ms. Gloria Robinson and Maurice a letter from my doctor which indicated that I had no work restrictions.

I was dismissed on Tuesday, August 1, 2017 after filing an official complaint with Dr. Ray Cureton (the IIR Department of Dynamic Security).

I wish to file a charge of discrimination for race and gender, pregnancy discrimination and retaliation due to my exercise of protected activity by filing a complaint of discrimination with my employer.

Incident Detailed:

On Wednesday, July 19, 2017, I was interviewed for a position as a mail clerk at the Hyundai Plant in Montgomery, Alabama by Ms. Gloria Robinson and Maurice. I went through the entire interview; with no mention of my hairstyle (I currently have neat locs (dreadlocks)). Ms. Robinson went and got her manager Cassandra Williams to ask if my hairstyle was okay and Ms. Williams turned up her nose and asked if I could take my hair down and I replied no unless I were to cut it. Ms. Williams also asked Ms. Robinson what was the policy of Dynamic Security, since this was the agency that my employment would go through and Ms. Robinson did not give an answer, but simply said she did not think I could have them. I showed both Ms. Williams and Ms. Robinson a picture on my phone of an updo style I had my locs in and they said that was ok. On Friday, July 21, 2017, I received an email from Ms. Gloria Robinson saying that I was hired for the position of mail clerk. On, Thursday, July 27, 2017, I had training at the Dynamic Security office and after that training, I asked an employee at Dynamic Security, Nicole, if my hairstyle was okay for their company's policy (as I was told throughout my initial interview, that I was employed by Dynamic Security for Hyundai and that Dynamic Security were the individuals who (direct quote) "signed my checks." Nicole informed me that my hair was neat and that there was nothing wrong with my hairstyle and she was not sure why anyone would have said anything to me concerning it. On July 31, 2017, I reported for my first day of work. While I was waiting to receive my badge, Ms. Cassandra Williams came into the building, spoke with me and saw me and that my hair was the same as in my interview and said nothing about me changing my hairstyle. After seeing Ms. Gloria Robinson and getting instructions from her, I pulled her (Ms. Gloria Robinson) and Maurice (who I was told was my immediate supervisor) to the side and informed them that I was pregnant. I handed them a note from my doctor, Dr.

Latoya Clark, stating that I had no restrictions and was able to fulfill all duties and also I handed them a paper that had my next scheduled doctor's appointment on it so they would know in advance. I went back to wait for further instruction. Ms. Robinson went to her back office, which she shares with Ms. Cassandra Williams, maybe 10 minutes later, Ms. Williams came out twice, the second time she came out she asked me what about my hair. I informed her that the topic of my hairstyle came up at my training at Dynamic Security and they informed me that as long as my hair was neat that my style was appropriate. She then in a loud and agitated voice said well it's not what they say it's what I say and even their handbook says no dreads. I then informed her that the handbook says that females hair have to be neat. She then stormed off. I was taken by Tanya, to be trained and maybe 30-45 minutes after being with Tanya, she received a call to bring me back to the office. I went into the office with Ms. Cassandra Williams, Maurice and eventually Ms. Gloria Robinson joined. Ms. Williams in a stern voice said, "You can't have your hair like that and work here because that's what our policy says." I then asked if I could see the policy and she then replied, I don't have to show you anything. She said that statement twice and then said I will show you but I do not have to. I went to her computer and the policy was in a Microsoft word document on her desktop and at the top it said n bold female uniformed officers. I explained to her that I would be working in the mailroom and was not an officer and she said that does not matter. She then asked me again what I was told at Dynamic Security and I told her they said that my hairstyle was ok. She informed me that well Dynamic has plenty of jobs so if they want to send you to another job then they can but you can't be here with your hair like that. She said the only thing in the policy that had changed was that females could wear braids and I asked her what was the difference in braids and my locs and she said the name and professionalism. Ms. Robinson said that with braids, one can see the person's scalp. I then asked, if you are able to see my scalp, will my hair be okay as such. Ms. Williams and Ms. Robinson just looked at me. Ms. Williams said that I needed to call my stylist and get my hair changed and I informed her that my stylist doesn't work on Tuesdays and today, I was unsure if she was available and also that I would have to drive to Auburn, Alabama because that's where she was located. I then asked Ms. Williams, what did she want me to do for today, go home or stay and she said she was not going to tell me to go home. I said the only alternative, if I cannot be here is to go home and Ms. Williams said I am not saying go home with her hands in the air. I then said, well, I choose to stay and Ms. Williams then said unless you want to wear a hat, all day, every day, but strictly said ALL of my hair had to be covered. I then reiterated what she said and asked so I can wear a hat, and Ms. Robinson said well it can't have a logo. I told them that I had a gray casual hat at home and that I could get it but I stayed 30 minutes away, that is when Ms. Robinson said, well why don't you go home for the day and contact your stylist and we will take it from there. I said okay and went to my car and left. Maybe 5 minutes after I left, Ms. Robinson called from (b) (7)(C) 1 Line Redacted and asked me when my child was due, I informed her in January and she said does your doctor know you will be lifting boxes? I let Ms. Robinson know that I informed my doctor, Dr. Latoya Clark, of all the job responsibilities that I was to have and she cleared me to do those duties, hence the note she wrote to my employer. I also informed Ms. Robinson, that while I worked for the United States Post Office, I worked until I was nine months pregnant doing the same work. She said ok and hung up the phone. I am filing this charge for both racial discrimination and pregnancy discrimination. My hair to me is what a hijab symbolizes to a Muslim, it is a part of my identity and who I am. Ms. Williams saw my hairstyle when she first saw me and did not say anything was wrong with it, she did not approach me until after I told Ms. Robinson that I was pregnant and Ms. Robinson went to their office.

I returned to work on Tuesday, August 1, 2017 and I complied with Ms. Cassandra Williams request and I wore a hat in which all of my hair was covered. After arriving to work, I went to my job site with my trainer Tanya. Tanya and I made our rounds and when we reached the security building, we went into the office of Ms. Gloria Robinson and Ms. Cassandra Williams and neither acknowledged me. Ms. Robinson kept her head down and Ms. Williams just gave me a cold look. On the ride back to the mailroom, my co-worker/trainer, Tanya, asked me why they sent me home on yesterday (Monday, July 31, 2017) and I told her because of my hair and that I did not think that was right but I could still work with them. Maybe 20 minutes after returning to the mailroom, Tanya received a call that Maurice was coming to get me. Once Maurice came, I gathered my things and we went to the security building, where Ms. Robinson and Maurice met with me in the conference room. Ms. Robinson asked if anything was wrong with me and unsure of what she was referring to, I said no that I was fine. I then went on to explain that I wore a hat today as Ms. Williams said I could because I was unable to get a hair appointment. Ms. Robinson informed me that this meeting was not about my hat and readjusted herself in her chair and said so you feel discriminated against and I just looked at her. I told her I had no comment and she then said so you do and I said I did not say that. I asked if she had a recording or proof that I said that and she then said that Tanya told her that I felt that way. I wanted to say yes, I feel discriminated against but all I could think about was how on yesterday (Monday, July 31, 2017) and the short time I was there today, (August 1, 2017), how these women had treated me and did not want to cause anymore problems for myself so I said I did not say that. Ms. Robinson went on to inform me that the Koreans were a different breed of animals and that they send little memos saying that they do not want African-Americans wearing their hair in the dreadlock hairstyle because they have VIP clients, such as the mayor of Montgomery, Alabama and it is not a good look. She then said that me asking to see the policy on yesterday was a bit off but she understood why but still I should not have gone to Ms. Williams like that. I then said that I only wanted to see the policy because I wanted to see it written what I was to adhere to and that by law they should let me see the employee handbook, so I am aware of the rules and regulations. Ms. Robinson then said the handbook was posted and I informed her that I was not told anything of Hyundai's policies because in my interview, it was stressed that I work for Dynamic Security. She then said that I do work for Dynamic Security but I have to go by Hyundai's criteria and I told her I was never given a copy of their criteria. Ms. Robinson then said that I was going to be a problem and that this situation was going to be a problem. And she asked if this was how it was going to be until (referring to me having my child). I asked Ms. Robinson what the solution was and did she want me to remove my hat and she is a loud and agitated voice said this meeting is not about your hat. After meeting with Ms. Robinson, I felt even more threatened by her and Ms. Williams attempts to intimidate me as an African-American woman who chooses to wear her nature hair and as a pregnant employee. Once at the mailroom, I asked Tanya what she had said and she confirmed that she told them I felt discriminated against and Tanya called Ms. Robinson and spoke with her but I had stepped out of the office. I was overcome with emotional stress to think that in 2017, I would be treated as such and that I would be judged because of my natural hair and because I am with child. I came back to the mailroom and I wrote up an official complaint against Hyundai, Ms. Cassandra Williams and Ms. Gloria Robinson and they sent Maurice to the office and I handed him the complaint. I told Maurice that I would like to file an official complaint against them with the Human Resource department and he said you can talk with Ms. Williams or Ms. Robinson. I thought of the encounters that I had already had with them and told him that I would feel more comfortable talking directly with HIR because I thought the way the talked to me and handled me where demeaning, disrespectful and created a hostile environment for me and emotional/mental anguish. Maurice then told me that I would have to go to Dynamic Security and speak with Ray Cureton. I asked if I left would I be able to return to work after the meeting and he said well that's up to you. Maurice gave me permission to leave the job to speak with Dr. Cureton and he assured me that after my meeting I would be able to return to work, I said ok and left. Once I reached the Dynamic Security office, I spoke with Dr. Cureton and I told him what has transpired just as I have outlined above. Dr. Cureton, had Nicole sit in on the meeting, throughout the meeting, Nicole made remarks to the effect that I was fighting a downhill battle and did I really think that I would be fruitful at the end. Nicole, even stated that filing a discrimination claim is a a serious offense, which I took as to discouraging me to follow through with my complaint. Dr. Cureton then told me that Ms. Williams informed him that they did not want me at the job site anymore. I asked Dr. Cureton why and he replied because of your hair and something else but I do not want to put words in their mouth so I will wait until they send over the paperwork. Dr. Cureton, apologized for how I was treated and asked for my Hyundai badge and then informed me that he would send the copy of the complaint that I wrote up and gave to Maurice, Ms. Gloria Robinson and Ms. Cassandra Williams to the Dynamic Security IIR department in Birmingham and that he would get back with me in a couple of days so I can review the documents saying why I was dismissed from Hyundai. As I left the office, Nicole walked me to the car and told me that she had "really" been discriminated against and kept trying to tell me that unless I was going through with this complaint just because, that I was fighting a losing battle, again having me feel as if she were attempting to discourage me from filing an official complaint.

Reason for Discrimination

I believe I was discriminated against both racially and due to me being pregnant, and I was retaliated against for exercising protected activity, i.e. filing a complaint with IIR.
